

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.1.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. An _____ is used for boring holes.

2. They were _____ here.

3. _____ is used in making soap.

4. _____ down and go to sleep.

lye lie all awl

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.2.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. He _____ the horse down the

_____.

2. The dog _____ in the

_____.

road rode lane

lain

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.3.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. A mouse has _____ in the

_____ of grain.

2. Go _____ for the _____ time.

bin been forth fourth

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.4.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. That is _____ a square

_____.

2. Did you _____ the _____ last summer.

knot not see sea

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.5.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. He _____ the _____ book.

2. The bold _____ came by _____.

read red knight night

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.6.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. I heard _____ sing a

_____.

2. She told the _____ about the cat's _____.

him

hymn tail

tale

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.7.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. The wind _____ the _____ shirt.

2. _____ you like to go to the forest for _____ ?

blue blew wood would

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.8.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. _____ clock chimes on the

_____.

2. A _____ carries blood to the heart.

3. The weather _____ pointed east.

4. She was _____ about her looks.

hour

our vain

vane vein

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.9.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. Sunday is the first day of the

_____.

2. He was too _____ to walk.

3. The _____ was to well done.

4. Let's _____ at the store.

weak

week

meet meat

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.10.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. A mouse has a long _____.

2. He told a _____ of long ago.

3. The lion had a shaggy _____.

4. It was the _____ pipeline.

tale

tail

mane main

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.11.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. The _____ was late.

2. A boy is a _____.

3. They were to _____ at dawn.

4. The _____ was on Tuesday.

mail

male sail sale

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.12.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. Foxes _____ on chickens.

2. They went to church to _____.

3. He had a _____ in his arm.

4. The window _____ was frosty.

pray prey pain pane

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.13.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. The _____ came down in buckets.

2. The queen had a long _____.

3. Throw me a _____.

4. The baby began to _____.

rein rain ball bawl

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.14.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. She liked to _____ the color blue.

2. The pushcart had copper _____.

3. Fill the _____ with water.

4. She was of _____ face.

ware

wear pail pale

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.15.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. She dyed her _____ pink.

2. A _____ has long ears.

3. The _____ was dark.

4. An ox can _____ heavy loads.

hair hare hall haul

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.16.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. The _____ ran into the woods.

2. The letter began " _____ sir."

3. It was the last _____ of summer.

4. The corn was planted in long

_____.

deer

dear rows rose

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.17.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. The _____ of the bells began at dawn.

2. _____ me an apple please.

3. She wore a black _____.

4. The stream led through the

_____.

peel peal vale veil

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.18.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. The bus _____ was one dollar.

2. The weather report was _____.

3. A bear has lots of _____.

4. An evergreen tree is called a _____.

fair fare fur fir

PUZZLES/BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.19.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. The first number is _____.

2. The winner of the race _____.

3. The morning _____ was on the rose.

4. The library book was _____ the next day.

one won dew

due

PUZZLES / BRAIN TEASERS

MotherGooseCaboose.com

HOMONYMS. Directions. Print out. A homonym is a word that is pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning and is usually spelled differently. Examples: Fur & fir. p.20.

NAME _____

Fill in the blanks.

1. An eyelash is part of an _____.

2. Another word for yes is _____.

3. The largest digit on a foot is a _____.

4. The truck had to _____ the car.

eye

aye toe tow