

My Kitty Cat
My kitty cat, she moves around,
 She crouches and creeps without a sound.

She stretches her body over the floor.
 She rubs herself against the door.

She eats her food and licks her fur.
 And then she starts to "purr" and
 "purr."

And, then without another "peep,"
 She curls right up and goes to sleep.

"Meow, meow."

- Ellen Baumwoll (1938 - )
 American poet, writer.
 ©MotherGooseCaboose.com

