

READING & WRITING. Feb. 2006. MotherGooseCaboose.com
Stories. There Is A Little Boy In The House. Directions. Print out.
Read the story. Use as a reference when answering the questions. p.1.

There Is A Little Boy In The House

There is a little boy in our house.

There is a coat, for the little boy in our house.

There is a taylor who makes the coat,
for the little boy in our house.

There is a weaver who weaves the cloth,
from which the taylor makes the coat,
for the little boy in our house.

There is a spinner who spins the thread,
from which the weaver weaves the cloth,
from which the taylor cuts the coat,
for the little boy in our house.

There is a sheep that gives the wool,
from which the spinner spins the thread,
from which the weaver weaves the cloth,
from which the taylor makes the coat,
for the little boy in our house.

The End.

READING & WRITING. Feb. 2006. MotherGooseCaboose.com
Stories. There Is A Little Boy In The House. Directions. Print out.
Read the story. Use as a reference when answering the questions. p.2.

NAME _____

Questions.

1. Who makes the coat for the little boy?

2. What does the taylor do?

3. What does the weaver do?

READING & WRITING. Feb. 2006. MotherGooseCaboose.com
Stories. There Is A Little Boy In The House. Directions. Print out.
Read the story. Use as a reference when answering the questions. p.3.

NAME _____

Questions cont'd.

4. What does the spinner do?

5. What does the sheep do?

READING & WRITING. Feb. 2006. MotherGooseCaboose.com

Stories. There Is A Little Boy In The House. Directions. Print out.

Check your answers with the answers below.

p.4.

NAME _____

ANSWERS.

- 1. The taylor.
- 2. The taylor makes the coat.
- 3. The weaver weaves the cloth.
- 4. The spinner spins the thread.
- 5. The sheep gives the wool.